Genealogical Research ~ Helpful Sources

FREE ON-LINE:

www.ellisisland.org
(For arrivals 1892-1924; search by name to find passenger manifests.)

www.castlegarden.org
(1830-1892 pre-Ellis Island arrivals; search by name.)

http://stevemorse.org/ellis2/ellisgold.html
(Allows expanded search for passenger records)

www.conigliofamily.com/ConiglioGenealogyTips.htm
(Step-by-step process for tracing ancestors)

www.translate.google.com
(Translates words or phrases from another language to English, and reverse.)

www.bit.ly/Antenati The official Italian Archives site.

https://www.familysearch.org
(Search for microfilms of birth, death and marriage records by town. Tutorial videos are also available, for example, click on "Italy" on this page: https://www.familysearch.org/learningcenter/home.html to access several videos.)

http://www.rootsweb.com/
(Search by name to find persons in others' on-line family trees. Also has links to some information on Ancestry.com [see below].)

http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/
(Official site of Library and Archives Canada)

https://www.dnatestingguides.com/blogs/the-ultimate-beginners-guide-to-genealogy/
(A good guide for beginners, covering 'paper' research and DNA analysis)

NOT FREE ON-LINE:

www.ancestry.com/
(Search censuses, marriage records, Canada-US border crossings, etc.; European birth, marriage & death records; passenger manifests from many ports; BMD records for many places are on-line. Paid site, access is free at FamilySearch Centers.)

OFF-LINE (CONVENTIONAL): Mormon FamilySearch Center, 1424 Maple Road, Williamsville (716-688-2439) or find an FSC at http://bit.ly/LocateFSCs; also visit public libraries; local genealogical societies; county/city clerks or city and village archives.

Look for books entitled, "Discovering Your [Italian, German, etc.] Ancestors", etc.

Ange Coniglio Phone: 716-832-3790, 905-894-5979
e-mail: GenealogyTips@aol.com